Comments:

- * The loads identified as ammunition consisted of boxes packed with ammunition or explosives, each box and car marked with the replica of a bomb. The trains were guarded by Russian soldiers.
- ** The troop transports, unloaded in Kuestrin-Kietz on 18 and 19 August, came from the vicinity of Magdeburg. The 800 soldiers, who wore black shoulder boards, were quartered in the Artillerie Kaserne, where previously units of the Volkspolizei had been stationed. All troops were held in barracks.
